Big I PAC

Big I PAC is the Independent Insurance Agents & Brokers of Washington’s political action committee established to complement its legislative efforts in Washington State.

Simply put, a PAC contribution is the equivalent of purchasing political insurance. Your contributions are used to support elected officials and candidates who advance IIABW core principles on agent-specific, insurance industry and general business issues. Agents’ pooled contributions send a powerful message: IIABW agents care about the political make-up of Olympia, we care about our industry’s future, and we care about our customers. Personal and corporate contributions are welcomed.

Over the past five years, Big I PAC has become one of the largest business trade association contributors to legislative campaigns. As contribution limits increase and legislative campaigns become even more competitive, the pressure is on politically-engaged organizations like IIABW to increase our level of giving.
