

Join the IIABW Young Agents for our next fun adventure

GOAT YOGA!

Thursday July 10th 3-5pm

Sammamish Animal Sanctuary

16515 SE May Valley Road

Renton, Washington 98059

We will enjoy the class then have wine and cheese and have the opportunity to visit all the other animals.

*You do not need to have yoga knowledge to join us – we are there to learn and have fun.

The goats that will be joining us are very sweet and friendly and very used to being around people.

Ticket are $40 per person. This will cover the class, wine and cheese and sanctuary tour.

The class will be 45 minutes.

Please register soon. We have a limited amount of space for this event.

100% of your registration will go directly to the sanctuary for the animals' care.

Interested in sponsoring this event? Contact Suzanne at sarnett@wainsurance.org or 425-336-0461

Sammamish Animal Sanctuary is a 501c3 non-profit in Renton, Washington, that provides forever homes for abused, neglected, unwanted, and/or homeless barnyard animals. They do not breed, sell, or buy their animals.

As a non-profit organization, they rely on the generosity of our gracious donors and volunteers. Please visit their website for more information on donating and volunteering.